September Iconography Workshop

Our parish will be hosting our 6th Annual 6-Day Iconography Workshop September 12-17th, led by Fr. Igumen Mefodii, master iconographer of the Prosopon School of Iconology.

No previous artistic experience is needed for beginners to do Archangel Michael and those who have previously done icons will do another based on their experience. We will be introduced to the symbolism of the elements in the icon and of each step in the process. We will follow the ancient traditional Russian-Byzantine techniques of painting icons including applying gold leaf, the “floating” egg tempera with natural pigments, and the final application of oil. The workshop atmosphere will be that of a spiritual retreat as we work quietly and prayerfully each day, breaking for a potluck lunch.

The deadline to register is approaching quickly, Aug. 22nd, and many have already signed up. Further details can be found in the fliers on our bulletin board and kitchen pass-through window, our parish website or Facebook page, or by contacting me.

Adult Religious Education

After a brief hiatus, Adult Religious Education classes has resumed on Wednesday nights at 7 p.m. The current series focuses on the Divine Liturgy, why we worship the way we do, and what every detail of the Divine Liturgy means both historically and for us today. You do not need to have attended the previous sessions to participate.

Substitute Needed for Bulletin

I am looking for someone who would be willing to take over working on the bulletin for the first two weeks in August while I am on vacation. All it takes is basic word processing skills and a little time during the week. Please email Kristin Milligan or talk with her during Fellowship on Sunday if you would be able to help out. Thanks!

Scrip

It is really wonderful to welcome so many new people to our “little church in the woods”. You have probably seen the little sign in the fellowship hall advertising “Scrip”, and may have wondered what it is all about. Scrip is a program which provides “free money” to non-profit organizations. Basically, our church purchases gift cards (scrip) at a discounted rate and sell them to the parishioners at face value. The size of the discount depends on the vendor, for example, a card from Lowes usually offers 4%, Chiles offers 11%, L.L. Bean 18%. There are hundreds of vendors participating in the program. These percentages, albeit small can amount to significant donations. Up until a couple of years ago, the average from scrip for the year was $2500 (this more than pays half our rent for the year). With the loss of some of our parishioners, the income from scrip has declined. I keep the most popular ones for our parishioners on hand. These include Giant, Shoppers Food Warehouse, WAWA, Sheetz, Exxon, WalMart and Target, Lowes, Amazon, and a few popular restaurants. I try to replenish my supply once a month, however, if someone wants something I do not have on hand, I can get it by the following Sunday. In addition, there is a way parishioners can order scrip directly from Great Lakes Scrip by entering a code which will identify the order coming from a St Herman of Alaska Orthodox Church parishioner, however no one seems interested in that option and prefer to obtain their scrip from me. I would explore that option if anyone wishes. The code would insure the church would be credited for the discount. Sunday, I will have copies of the vendor list available.

You know, we are half way to Christmas. Gift cards make great gifts. Just saying.

National Night Out

Reader Moses reports: Our parish will participate in Stafford County's National Night Out on 2 August at the Target parking lot in Stafford Marketplace. The outing is designed to heighten crime and drug prevention awareness, support and participate in local anticrime efforts, strengthen neighborhood spirit and police-community partnerships, and to send a message to criminals letting them know neighborhoods are organized and fighting back. For us, as St. Herman of Alaska Orthodox Church, the event is a means to present ourselves to the community and to introduce Orthodoxy to those who are unaware of the true Church - that includes most of the population of Stafford. I will need help in setting up for the event - we'll have our tent, tables, chairs, icons, brochures, etc. to transport to the site and erect. We'll also need parishioners to man our booth throughout the hours of 1700 to 2100 on that day. More information will be forthcoming after I attend the Sheriff's Office final planning meeting on 11 July.

Eagle Scout Project to Benefit Church Grounds

Sam Rose of Boy Scout Troop 847 of Spotsylvania, along with several of his fellow troop members, will be working on the church grounds this week. Sam, who is completing his Eagle Scout badge, has also made two wooden benches for the walking trail. Sam is the grandson of Elizabeth and Ron Milton.

“In truth there is only one freedom - the holy freedom of Christ, whereby He freed us from sin, from evil, from the devil. It binds us to God. All other freedoms are illusory, false, that is to say, they are all, in fact, slavery.”
