Adult Religious Education

After a brief hiatus, Adult Religious Education classes will resume on Wednesday nights at 7 p.m. on July 6. The current series focuses on the Divine Liturgy, why we worship the way we do, and what every detail of the Divine Liturgy means both historically and for us today. You do not need to have attended the previous sessions to participate.

Green Thumbs Needed!

We need help with the maintenance of the grounds, specifically in two ways.

- 1) With the grass come weeds and the need to maintain our plants and flowers. If you are interested in assisting in this area please contact Jo Lu Terrell during coffee hour or by email JoLuTerrell@gmail.com
- 2) Reader Steve Miroy has been working on a walking path around the perimeter of the grounds. If you are interested in assisting him with this please see him after Divine Liturgy or during coffee hour.

If you have other ideas or suggestions for our grounds please contact Jo Lu Terrell, our landscaping coordinator.

A Relaxing Saturday

Thank you to Reader Steve and Jo Lu Terrell for opening your home to our congregation so we might relax and enjoy each other's company.

Every flower is fragrant through the power of the Holy Spirit, in a delicate flow of aroma and tenderness of color; the beauty of the Great contained in what is small. Praise and honor to God, Who gives life, Who spreads forth the meadows like a flowering carpet, Who crowns the fields with golden ears of wheat and azure basilisks, and the soul – with the joy of contemplation. Let us rejoice and sing to Him: Alleluia.

+ The Akathist Hymn "Glory to God for All Things", Kontakion 3

Prosfora

Areti Stylianopoulos is currently providing the Prosfora. If you are interested in helping to make Prosfora for the church, please contact Nancy St. Clair.

We are registered with two broadcast media weather alert systems: (1) television: WJLA-TV (channel 7) and News Channel 8, and (2) radio: WTOP radio (103.5, 103.9, 107.7 -- all FM) and WTOP.com Any closings will also be posted on the home page of our website and via email to those who have asked to be on our electronic mailing list.

Scrip

It is really wonderful to welcome so many new people to our "little church in the woods". You have probably seen the little sign in the fellowship hall advertising "Scrip", and may have wondered what it is all about. Scrip is a program which provides "free money" to non-profit organizations. Basically, our church purchases gift cards (scrip) at a discounted rate and sell them to the parishioners at face value. The size of the discount depends on the vendor, for example, a card from Lowes usually offers 4%, Chiles offers 11%, L.L. Bean 18%. There are hundreds of vendors participating in the program. These percentages, albeit small can amount to significant donations. Up until a couple of years ago, the average from scrip for the year was $2500 (this more than pays half our rent for the year). With the loss of some of our parishioners, the income from scrip has declined. I keep the most popular ones for our parishioners on hand. These include Giant, Shoppers Food Warehouse, WAWA, Sheetz, Exxon, WalMart and Target, Lowes, Amazon, and a few popular restaurants. I try to replenish my supply once a month, however, if someone wants something I do not have on hand, I can get it by the following Sunday. In addition, there is a way parishioners can order scrip directly from Great Lakes Scrip by entering a code which will identify the order coming from a St Herman of Alaska Orthodox Church parishioner, however no one seems interested in that option and prefer to obtain their scrip from me. I would explore that option if anyone wishes. The code would insure the church would be credited for the discount. Sunday, I will have copies of the vendor list available.

You know, we are half way to Christmas. Gift cards make great gifts. Just saying.
