New Topic in Adult Religious Education Class!

We have just begun a new Bible study in the Book of Tobit in the Old Testament--that is, the ancient Greek Septuagint, our official Orthodox OT. Tobit is only 14 chapters in length, but its narrative story set in ancient Nineveh, Ecbatana, and Rages (modern Tehran) is at once intriguing, unexpected, captivating, troubling, and inspirational. Key themes / teachings include the unique importance of family, angels and demons, purposeful suffering, prayer, fasting, almsgiving, faith, hope, and love! The class meets at 7 p.m. on Wednesdays (except September 21) and all are welcome!

Looking for a Good Book?

A few of us are clearing off our bookshelves, and there are some boxes of books (mostly children's books and curriculum books) available in the closet of the Fellowship Hall for anyone who would like them. Please take what you would like and leave the rest for others to look through. If you have any questions, please talk to Kristin Milligan.

Reminder to all parents of Sunday School children:

Sunday school classes will begin today, September 18th. Pre-school (age 3) to Kindergarten will meet in the corner classroom in the lower level of the fellowship hall. Elementary grades 1-5 will meet in the main conference room in the lower level. Children in those grades will depart the chapel immediately after Holy Communion (approx. 11:30 am) and will be escorted to the classrooms by their teachers. Junior high & high school children grades 7-12 will gather in the main conference room in the lower level of the fellowship hall around 12:10 pm. To implement a new safety policy we request that parents / grandparents sign out their younger children at the end of the pre-school-K and elementary classes around 12:10 pm. It is a privilege to teach your children this year!

HOLY CONFESSIONS

Faithful communion in the Holy Mysteries requires faithful participation in the Holy Mystery of Confession. To apply Fr. Thomas Hopko's felicitous phrase "regular and disciplined communion" also to Confession entails Holy Confession ideally each month by those faithful who expect to receive the Body and Blood of Our Lord at each Sunday Divine Liturgy. The timing may be extended through the practice of "oikonomia" (exception for the greater good of both the person and the community) to once every two months. However, Holy Confession less frequent than bi-monthly is, according to the guidance of our recent hierarch, His Beatitude Metropolitan Jonah, inadequate preparation for receiving the Body and Blood of our Lord. Regular opportunities for Holy Confession at St Herman of Alaska Orthodox Mission include the following: each Saturday after Great Vespers, each Wednesday evening before the Adult Religious Education class (that is, from 6 p.m. until 6:45 p.m.), Sundays after Divine Liturgy upon request, and by appointment at other times. Of course, parishioners may have established previous relations with other Orthodox priest-confessors that they may wish to continue. If that is the case, I ask only that such parishioners let me know the names of their priest-confessors, so that I can be confident that the spiritual relation is strong. Please honor the minimum standard for this necessary spiritual discipline and vital sacramental opportunity.

~ Archpriest Alexander

"If you see your neighbor in sin, don't look only at this, but also think about what he has done or does that is good, and infrequently trying this in general, while not partially judging, you will find that he is better than you."

— St. Basil the Great, Conversations, 20
