New Topic in Adult Religious Education Class!

We have just begun a new Bible study in the Book of Tobit in the Old Testament--that is, the ancient Greek Septuagint, our official Orthodox OT. Tobit is only 14 chapters in length, but its narrative story set in ancient Nineveh, Ecbatana, and Rages (modern Tehran) is at once intriguing, unexpected, captivating, troubling, and inspirational. Key themes / teachings include the unique importance of family, angels and demons, purposeful suffering, prayer, fasting, almsgiving, faith, hope, and love! The class meets at 7 p.m. on Wednesdays and all are welcome!

Looking for a Good Book?

A few of us are clearing off our bookshelves, and there are some boxes of books (mostly children's books and curriculum books) available in the closet of the Fellowship Hall for anyone who would like them. Please take what you would like and leave the rest for others to look through. If you have any questions, please talk to Kristin Milligan.

The Icon Corner

The Commemoration of the Vladimir Icon of the Mother of God and the deliverance of Moscow from the Invasion of Tamerlane was August 26.

It was painted by Evangelist Luke on a board from the table on which Christ, His Holy Mother, and Righteous Joseph had eaten. When the Theotokos saw it she proclaimed that the Grace of Him who was born of me be with this icon, and these words became part of the Iconographer's Prayer.
